

= M @-@ 105 ( Michigan highway ) =

M @-@ 105 was the designation of a former state trunkline highway in The Thumb region of the US state of Michigan . It served as a connecting route between M @-@ 53 in Popple and M @-@ 83 ( now M @-@ 142 ) near Elkton . The designation was in use in the 1920s and 1930s , and it has not been reused since .

= = Route description = =

M @-@ 105 began at an intersection with M @-@ 53 ( Van Dyke Road ) in the small community of Popple , just before M @-@ 53 curved east towards Bad Axe . Known as Pinnebog Road , the trunkline traveled first north and then northwesterly , crossing the Pinnebog River . After intersecting Stein Road , M @-@ 105 turned due north for about three miles ( 4 @.@ 8 km ) through farm country and rural areas before meeting M @-@ 83 ( Pigeon Road ) , a few miles east of Elkton . The highway served as a shortcut connector between M @-@ 53 and M @-@ 83 .

= = History = =

The first appearance of M @-@ 105 on maps was in 1928 . The designation was decommissioned in 1939 when the roadway was transferred back to local control . The designation has not been used since .

= = Major intersections = =

The entire highway was in Colfax Township , Huron County .