

= Sian Breckin =

Sian Breckin (born 1982) is a British film , television and theatre actress . From 1993 to 1999 , Breckin attended classes at the Roundhay School , and received A @-@ Level in the field of drama . She went on to study theatre at the British drama school called East 15 Acting School , and as part of her drama graduate showcase she acted in the production of After Miss Julie by Patrick Marber .

Donkey Punch directed by Olly Blackburn was Breckin 's feature film debut ; she starred alongside Jaime Winstone , Nichola Burley , Tom Burke and Julian Morris . Subsequent television appearances included roles on series The Bill , Inspector George Gently , The Royal and Heartbeat .

Breckin acted in the film Tender directed by Deborah Haywood , and in Alice by filmmaker Marianne Elliott . She had guest starring roles on the television series Doctors and Casualty , and appeared as PC Janet Taylor in DCI Banks . She starred as Kelly in the 2011 film Tyrannosaur directed by Paddy Considine . Breckin had a recurring role as Deena Hardman on the Soap opera Hollyoaks in 2012 . She and her fellow cast members of Hollyoaks helped to raise money for Centrepont , a charity for the homeless .

= = Early life and education = =

Breckin 's mother and father reside in Gledhow , a district of north @-@ east Leeds , situated east of Chapel Allerton and west of Roundhay . In 2008 , Breckin had a residence in London and maintained a practice of visiting Leeds often .

From 1993 to 1999 , Breckin attended classes at the Roundhay School . In order to receive an A @-@ Level in the field of drama , Breckin continued to study at the Roundhay School until the age of 19 . She stated to the Yorkshire Evening Post that the drama programme at Roundhay School significantly helped her : " It was a new course , and so I did an extra year at school . We did a lot of plays at school and they fed our interest in drama . The teachers were really supportive and gave you confidence and if it hadn 't been for them I might have done something else . " After her studies at Roundhay School , Breckin went on to participate in acting workshops for one year at Stratford @-@ upon @-@ Avon .

Breckin attained an education in theatre at the British drama school called East 15 Acting School , located in Debden , Loughton , Essex . She studied at the drama school for three years . For her drama graduate " BA Acting Showcase " , Breckin portrayed the role of the character Annie in the production Inside Out by Kat Joyce ; as well as the role of Julie in the production of After Miss Julie by Patrick Marber . The Stage commented in a review that Breckin 's role as Annie was " played with conviction " .

= = Career = =

Breckin was directed by Olly Blackburn in the thriller film Donkey Punch ; she portrayed the character Lisa and starred alongside Jaime Winstone , Nichola Burley , Tom Burke and Julian Morris . She commented to the Yorkshire Evening Post about her experience acting in the film : " Filming it was such a wonderful experience . I learned an incredible amount and the team became very close . We are all incredibly proud of the film . " Breckin told the Irish Independent the intent was to portray realistic scenes in the film : " We wanted it as realistic as possible in terms of young people having fun . Sex isn 't glamorous . There are bits which are , and bits which are messy . " She commented to Sky News : " It 's about us , it 's about young people . Hopefully people can identify with that . It had to be that the audience can relate to my character , that they can see how she gets herself in certain situations and how easily that can happen . " Donkey Punch is Breckin 's first feature film . LoveFilm observed that Donkey Punch is " acted with conviction by a cast of newcomers " .

Breckin had a role in January 2008 on the television series The Bill . She appeared in 2009 on the programme Inspector George Gently , as character Audrey Chadwick . She played the character of Judith Ure in 2009 in the television series The Royal ; Breckin guest starred opposite series regular Damian O 'Hare who played Dr. Burnett , a physician tasked with diagnosing her pregnant character 's ailments . Breckin guest starred on the television drama Heartbeat playing the role of Janice Hopley opposite actor James Gaddas who portrayed her father .

Breckin starred in the film Tender , directed by Deborah Haywood . Marianne Elliott directed Breckin in a role in her 2010 short film titled Alice . Breckin portrayed the role of PC Janet Taylor in 2010 in the television series DCI Banks . She portrayed the character of Debs Hastings in a 2010 episode of the television series Doctors . She guest starred on the television series Casualty in 2010 , playing the part of Kim Rees .

Breckin starred as Kelly in the 2011 film Tyrannosaur directed by Paddy Considine . In 2012 , Breckin portrayed a villain character named Deena in the television series , Hollyoaks . In March 2012 , Breckin and her fellow cast members participated in a Sleep Out event in Childwall , Liverpool in the locality of Hollyoaks to raise money for Centrepont , a charity for the homeless .

= = Filmography = =

= = = Film = = =

= = = Television = = =

= = = Theatre = = =

2005 , Annie in Inside Out by Kat Joyce

2005 , Julie in After Miss Julie by Patrick Marber