

= Competitor lost the match ; BM =
Bronze medal match

= = Boxing = =

Five Egyptian boxers qualified for the Olympics , all of whom were men and earned their spots at the 2012 African Boxing Olympic Qualification Tournament . The only Egyptian to win a bout in London was Hesham Yehia , in the flyweight division , who defeated Benson Gicharu of Kenya before losing to Jasurbek Latipov of Uzbekistan in the round of 16 . Yehia 's most successful major international tournament had been the 2011 Pan Arab Games , where he had been the flyweight runner @-@ up . The most experienced boxer was Mohamed Hikal , who had competed in the light @-@ middleweight , welterweight , and middleweight categories of the 2000 , 2004 , and 2008 Summer Olympics respectively . Among his international boxing distinctions , he was 1999 and 2003 All @-@ African champion , 2005 Mediterranean champion , 2007 and 2011 Pan Arab champion , and 2007 African champion , and won a bronze medal at the 2005 World Championships . In 2012 he was once again representing Egypt as a middleweight and lost his first bout to Soltan Migitinov of Azerbaijan . Ramy Helmy El @-@ Awadi , a bronze medalist from the 2007 Pan Arab Games , received a bye in the opening round of the light flyweight class and was defeated by Ferhat Pehlivan of Turkey in the round of 16 . Mohamed Ramadan and Eslam El @-@ Gendy lost their first bouts to eventual silver medalist Han Soon @-@ Chul of South Korea and Gyula Káté of Hungary in the lightweight and light welterweight events respectively .

Men