NY 108 begins at Woodbury Road at the Nassau County line in the community of Cold Spring Harbor . Woodbury Road continues east as CR 11 , which later becomes Pulaski Road . To the west , Woodbury Road proceeds through Nassau County as unsigned CR 12 . The road , named Harbor Road , passes to the north of the Long Island Rail Road 's Cold Spring Harbor station and runs along the Nassau ? Suffolk county line . The route heads northward through a small residential neighborhood . At the intersection with Stillwell Lane , NY 108 southbound crosses into Nassau County , but soon curves away back into Suffolk . Soon after , the two @- @ lane road continues into Trail View State Park , where the route becomes desolate , passing two local ponds . A short distance later , NY 108 enters a small region of houses and intersects with Lawrence Hill Road . At the intersection with Lawrence Hill , NY 108 terminates ; just westward lies at an intersection with NY 25A ( North Hempstead Turnpike ) in Cold Spring Harbor .

= = History = =

Harbor Road was improved to state highway standards as part of a project contracted out by the state of New York on September 4 , 1919 . A total of 5 @. @ 86 miles ( 9 @. @ 43 km ) of highway were rebuilt as part of the $ 205 @, @ 500 project ( equivalent to $ 2 @. @ 73 million in 2016 ) , including the westernmost 4 @. @ 5 miles ( 7 @. @ 2 km ) of modern NY 25A in Suffolk County . The roads reconstructed as part of the project were added to the state highway system on January 11 , 1921 , as unsigned State Highway 1525 ( SH 1525 ) . The east ? west portion of SH 1525 was designated as part of NY 25 in the mid @- @ 1920s ; however , the north ? south leg did not receive a posted route number until c . 1932 , when it became NY 108 . The alignment of NY 108 has not been altered as of 1932 .
