

= Mississippi Highway 366 ( Tishomingo County ) =

Mississippi Highway 366 ( MS 366 ) is a short highway in northeastern Mississippi . The road starts at MS 25 in Belmont , and travels southeastward through Golden to the Alabama state border . The route was created in 1958 , and hasn 't changed significantly since .

= = Route description = =

All of the route is in Tishomingo County . MS 366 starts at MS 25 in Belmont , locally known as Second Street . The route travels southeastward out of the town , through farmland and small areas of trees . At Searcy Road , MS 366 travels along a railway owned by Redmont Railway . The road soon enters the village of Golden . Near the center of the village , the route intersects the eastern terminus of MS 760 . MS 366 then crosses over the railroad and temporarily travels east . Past Bear Creek Road , the route curved southeastward , intersecting a few more county roads . After passing County Road 78 , MS 366 ends at the Alabama state line . The road continues as Fourth Street Northwest into Red Bay .

In 2013 , Mississippi Department of Transportation ( MDOT ) calculated as many as 3 @, @ 900 vehicles traveling east of Long Street , and as few as 2 @, @ 800 vehicles traveling south of Shady Cove . It is not included as a part of the National Highway System ( NHS ) , a network of highways identified as being most important for the economy , mobility and defense of the nation . The route is legally defined in Mississippi Code § 65 @-@ 3 @-@ 3 . MS 366 is maintained by MDOT .

= = History = =

In 1958 , a new road in southeastern Tishomingo County was designated MS 366 . The new , paved route started from MS 25 and ended at the Alabama state line . The road has not changed significantly since .

= = Major intersections = =

The entire route is in Tishomingo County .