VT 129 begins at an intersection with School and Church Streets on Isle La Motte , heading northward as a portion of Main Street . This part of the highway is town maintained and is not signed as a state route . VT 129 then heads north , intersecting with Shrine Road (Town Highway 2) before leaving Isle La Motte over a bridge for Alburgh . The highway turns eastward , intersecting with local roads and passing to the south of Alburgh Golf Links . VT 129 then heads to the south , paralleling the shores of the La Motte Passage (a part of Lake Champlain) . At a curve to the east , VT 129 intersects with a short extension of a nearby highway , which terminates quickly . The route leaves the connector and heads eastward towards US 2 , soon terminating at an intersection with US 2 on the shores of another connector in South Alburgh .

= = History = =

The entire length of Vermont 129 was originally designated as VT F @- @ 2 in 1926 . VT F @- @ 2 originally went from US 2 to a ferry across Lake Champlain to Chazy , New York . Many of the F @- @ x series routes along the shores of Lake Champlain were changed to new designations in the 1940s , 1950s , and 1960s . VT F @- @ 2 was redesignated by 1947 as VT 129 . Between 1959 and 2008 , VT 129 was truncated to School Street on Isle La Motte .
