PR 2 begins at its southern terminus , an intersection with FM 2198 , as an undivided , two @- @ lane , paved road . The highway proceeds north into Caddo Lake State Park , passing around the park headquarters building , and continuing towards cabin sites . The road proceeds north , past the cabins , and splits into a large loop . The route passes Saw Mill Pond , and a small parking lot for the pond , before continuing down a steep slope back to the beginning of the loop . The PR 2 designation also includes three small roads that serve the main park campgrounds .

= = History = =

In 1927 , a small area of land near Caddo Lake was donated to create a public park . In 1929 and later in 1931 Caddo Lake itself and some of the surrounding areas were designated by the state of Texas to become state parkland . Between 1933 and 1937 , the Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) rebuilt the park and created many of the park 's structures . The National Park Service designated landscape designers Joe W. Westbrook and Fred R. Carpenter , as well as others , to design the park 's road system . On September 26 , 1939 , approximately 2 @. @ 0 miles (3 @. @ 2 km) of the roads inside the park were designated as PR 2 . On August 15 , 1968 , a short road traveling from a boat @- @ launch ramp to the park boundary was removed from PR 2 , shortening the route by approximately 0 @. @ 5 miles (0 @. @ 80 km) .
