Stacy Carter first appeared on World Wrestling Federation ( WWF ) ' s flagship program , Raw is War , in August 1999 . She debuted as Miss Kitty , an assistant to Debra , appointed to her by Jeff Jarrett , whom Debra managed . The partnership ended when Jarrett left the company after losing the Intercontinental Championship to Chyna at No Mercy . Because Jarrett was departing the company after the match , Carter began managing Chyna , and then started dressing in ' Chyna @-@ like ' clothing and wearing a black wig .

At Armageddon in December 1999 , Miss Kitty won her only WWF Women 's Championship in a Four Corners Evening Gown Pool match by defeating then @-@ champion Ivory , Jacqueline , and Barbara " BB " Bush by stripping them of their gowns . The special guest referees were The Fabulous Moolah and Mae Young . After the match , Miss Kitty stripped out of her dress in celebration and quickly flashed the crowd her breasts . This was the first instance of intentional nudity in the WWF . The following evening , she announced before successfully defending her title in a Chocolate Pudding Match that she was changing her name to The Kat . The Kat then appeared at the Royal Rumble in the ' Miss Royal Rumble Swimsuit Contest ' , where she appeared in a bikini made out of bubble wrap . The contest , however , was won by Mae Young . She lost the Championship on the January 31 edition of Raw to Hervina in a Lumberjill Snowbunny match , a match that took place in a snow filled pool surrounded by female wrestlers whose purpose was to keep The Kat and Hervina from leaving the pool .

The Kat then began an on @-@ screen rivalry with Terri Runnels , although neither were trained wrestlers . At WrestleMania 2000 , Runnels ( accompanied by The Fabulous Moolah ) defeated The Kat ( with Mae Young ) in a catfight . Val Venis was the special guest referee , but he was distracted during the match when Young kissed him , which allowed Moolah to pull The Kat out of the ring . When Venis saw her out of the ring , he declared Runnels the winner . Post @-@ match , The Kat attacked Runnels by stripping off her pants to expose her thong . The feud continued , and the duo had an arm wrestling match at Insurrextion . Carter was victorious , but after the match , Runnels pulled The Kat 's top off , exposing her breasts , which Carter allowed instead of acting disgusted or embarrassed . The two women continued to feud throughout the summer , often in mixed tag matches . In June 2000 , Carter attempted to regain the Women 's Championship by entering a battle royal to become the # 1 contender , but she was eliminated by her rival Terri . The feud resurfaced in a ' Thong Stink Face ' match at SummerSlam , which The Kat won by performing a stinkface on Runnels .

In early 2001 , The Kat began a new storyline with a stable called the Right to Censor , a group of conservative wrestlers , where she demanded equal time for the " right for nudity " . At No Way Out , Jerry Lawler , who was representing The Kat , lost a match to Steven Richards , the head of the stable , after The Kat mistakenly hit Lawler with the Women 's Championship belt . As a result of Lawler losing the match , she was forced to join the stable . On February 27 , 2001 , however , Carter was released from the WWF in the middle of the storyline . As a result , her husband Jerry Lawler also quit the company . According to Lawler , Carter was released from the WWF because Vince McMahon decided to end the angle with the Right to Censor . Other insiders cite Carter 's negative backstage attitude as the reason for her dismissal .
