

= Saves ; Sv % =

Save Percentage ; SO = Shutouts

? Denotes player spent time with another team before joining Flames . Stats reflect time with the Flames only . ? Traded mid @-@ season

Bold / italics denotes franchise record

= = Awards and honours = =

The NHL announced on June 22 , 2010 , that late owner Doc Seaman had been inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame in the builder 's category . Seaman was one of the original owners who brought the team to the city , played a key role in the construction of the Olympic Saddledome and in bringing the 1988 Winter Olympics to Calgary .

Several players reached major games played milestones in October . Rookie defenceman T. J. Brodie and goaltender Henrik Karlsson both played their first NHL games , while Karlsson earned his first win at the same time . Meanwhile , veteran defencemen Robyn Regehr and Cory Sarich each played their 800th games .

Thirty @-@ nine @-@ year @-@ old Craig Conroy became the second @-@ oldest player in NHL history to play 1 @,@ 000 games on October 28 . The talkative forward began his NHL career in 1995 with the Montreal Canadiens and after playing with the St. Louis Blues for several seasons , was acquired by Calgary in 2001 in a trade that was initially unpopular in Calgary . Conroy has since become one of the Flames ' most popular players . He played only nine more games before announcing his retirement as a player to join the Flames ' front office as an assistant to General Manager Jay Feaster .

Daymond Langkow was named a finalist for the Bill Masterton Memorial Trophy , awarded to the player who " best exemplifies the qualities of perseverance , sportsmanship and dedication to hockey . " He was nominated after making his return to the Flames lineup one year after a slapshot to the neck left him with broken vertebrae . Ray Emery of the Anaheim Ducks and Ian Laperriere of the Philadelphia Flyers were also named finalists for the award .

= = = Awards = = =

= = = Milestones = = =

= = Transactions = =

Two former Flames were brought back into the fold on the first day of the free agent signing period . Calgary first signed Alex Tanguay to a one @-@ year , $ 1 @.@ 7 million contract and then generated considerable debate by signing Olli Jokinen to a two @-@ year , $ 6 million deal . The re @-@ acquisition of Jokinen was especially surprising to fans and media alike , as the centre was shipped to the New York Rangers in a controversial trade only four months previous after a disappointing 2009 ? 10 season in Calgary . The signing was sharply criticized by local and national media , though reaction amongst fans was mixed as polls suggested only a minority opposed the moves .

= = = Trades = = =

= = = Additions and subtractions = = =

= = Draft picks = =

The Flames entered the 2010 NHL Entry Draft without a selection in the first two rounds . They would have picked 13th overall , however that pick was traded to the Phoenix Coyotes as part of a 2009 trade for Olli Jokinen . Their second round pick went to the Chicago Blackhawks as part of a 2008 deal in which Calgary acquired Rene Bourque . The Flames ' first selection was early in the third round , a pick acquired from the Columbus Blue Jackets in exchange for Anton Stralman . They selected Max Reinhart with that pick . His father Paul was also a former Flames draft pick . Calgary made one trade at the draft , sending their sixth round pick ( 163rd overall ) to the Sharks in exchange for goaltender Henrik Karlsson .

Statistics are updated to the end of the 2014 ? 15 NHL season . ? denotes player was on an NHL roster in 2014 ? 15 .

= = Abbotsford Heat = =

For the second year , the Flames ' top affiliate was the Abbotsford Heat of the American Hockey League ( AHL ) . The Heat finished the 2010 ? 11 AHL season with a 38 ? 32 ? 4 ? 6 record , fourth in the North Division , but failed to qualify for the Calder Cup playoffs . The Heat struggled offensively for much of the season ; Matt Keith was the team 's leading scorer at just 35 points , while T. J. Brodie and Jon Rheault had 34 points each . Brodie , a rookie , was the team 's lone representative at the 2011 AHL All @-@ Star Game . Leland Irving established himself as the team 's top goaltender early in the year . His 30 wins was second in the AHL , and he led the league in shutouts with eight .

The uncertainty surrounding the NHL 's Phoenix Coyotes and a possible relocation to Winnipeg resulted in speculation that the Heat would also be relocating . Vancouver radio station CKNW reported that if the Coyotes relocated , the Manitoba Moose would move to Abbotsford , and the Heat to the nearby community of Chilliwack . Flames president Ken King refuted the argument , noting that the Heat were in only their second year of a ten @-@ year agreement with the City of Abbotsford .