

= K @-@ 360 (Kansas highway) =

K @-@ 360 is a state highway in Cowley County the U.S. state of Kansas . It follows a route around the south and east sides of Winfield . The highway was established in 1997 . It starts at US @-@ 77 south of Winfield and proceeds east and north for 3 @. @ 469 miles (5 @. @ 583 km) , ending at US @-@ 160 east of Winfield . K @-@ 360 is not a part of the United States National Highway System . The highway has annual average daily traffic values ranging from 2235 to 1179 .

= = History = =

K @-@ 360 first appeared on the State of Kansas highway maps in 1997 . The routing of K @-@ 360 has remained unchanged .

= = Route description = =

K @-@ 360 starts at an intersection with U.S. Route 77 just south of the city of Winfield , Kansas . From there , the highway heads east , curves slightly south , then heads northeast along the south side of Winfield for a total of 1 @. @ 571 miles (2 @. @ 528 km) to an intersection with Wheat Road . After the intersection with Wheat Road the highway curves gently due east and then due north around the southeast side of Winfield , then continues north along the east side of Winfield a further 0 @. @ 5 miles (0 @. @ 80 km) to its terminus with U.S. Route 160 .

K @-@ 360 is not a part of the United States National Highway System . The highway connects to the National Highway System at its intersection with U.S. Route 77 . The western sections of the highway are more traveled than the eastern sections , with an annual average daily traffic of 2235 on the first one mile (1 @. @ 6 km) of the route , 1703 on the next one mile (1 @. @ 6 km) , and 1179 on the final 1 @. @ 469 miles (2 @. @ 364 km) of the route . The entirety of K @-@ 360 's route is paved with Portland cement concrete pavement .

= = Major intersections = =