

$= Fd$  acting on the beam . Now , let the distance  $d$  approach the limit zero , while  $M$  is kept constant . The load distribution , assuming a clockwise moment acting at  $x = 0$  , is written

$$<formula>$$
Point moments can thus be represented by the derivative of the delta function . Integration of the beam equation again results in piecewise polynomial deflection .