CR 574 begins at an intersection with NY 16 and NY 78 (Seneca Street) northwest of East Aurora in the town of Elma . The route heads eastward along Jamison Road , passing south of a predominantly residential neighborhood and north of a large industrial complex . The latter ends after 0 @.@ 5 miles (0 @.@ 8 km) , and CR 574 continues on to an interchange with the Aurora Expressway (NY 400) . CR 574 intersects Bowen Road (CR 242) and (CR 361) just east of the expressway .

As CR 574 approaches the hamlet of East Elma , it meets Girdle Road (CR 336) . In East Elma itself , Jamison Road intersects Creek Road (CR 134) and Hemstreet Road (CR 172) . Past East Elma , the land surrounding CR 574 becomes less developed and largely dominated by cultivated fields . CR 574 continues on through the open fields and into the town of Marilla , where it ends at a junction with Two Rod Road , a local arterial maintained by the New York State Department of Transportation as NY 954G , an unsigned reference route . Prior to 1982 , Two Rod Road was NY 358 .

= = History = =

The portion of Jamison Road from Bowen Road to Maple Road was originally designated as part of NY 78 in the 1930 renumbering of state highways in New York . By the following year , the entirety of Jamison Road was designated as NY 422 . NY 78 was realigned c . 1932 to follow a new routing between East Aurora and Depew while its former routing from East Aurora to Lancaster was redesignated as NY 78A . The NY 78A designation , which overlapped NY 422 between Bowen Road and Maple Road , was removed c . 1938 .

On April 1 , 1980 , ownership and maintenance of NY 422 was transferred from the state of New York to Erie County as part of a larger highway maintenance swap between the two levels of government . The NY 422 designation was removed on September 25 , 1980 , allowing Jamison Road to become CR 574 .
