

= M @-@ 74 ( Michigan highway ) =

M @-@ 74 was the designation of a state trunkline highway in the US state of Michigan . The highway ran through rural Missaukee County connecting Pioneer with Merritt . The highway was designated by 1919 along a longer route . It was shortened before it was totally removed from the highway system in the late 1930s .

= = Route description = =

M @-@ 74 started at a junction with M @-@ 66 near the community of Pioneer . It ran east on Moorestown Road through Stittsville to Moorestown before turning south on Nelson Road . There it ran through the community of Star City , turning west briefly on Walker Road and running south on Star City Road before terminating at a junction with M @-@ 55 west of Merritt . All of M @-@ 74 was a gravel highway .

= = History = =

On July 1 , 1919 , M @-@ 74 ran between Pioneer and M @-@ 55 west of Merritt . There it turned east running concurrently with M @-@ 55 to Merritt where it turned south to Moddersville and terminated . The spur south of Merritt remained a state highway through at least late 1938 . Late that year or early the next , the roadway between Merritt and Moddersville was turned back to local control and removed from the highway system . By late 1939 , the entire highway was decommissioned in its entirety . The highway designation has not been used since .

= = Major intersections = =

The entire highway was in Missaukee County .